

Southwestern Ohio Ambulatory Research Network
www.med.wright.edu/SOARNet/
Leadership Group Meeting Minutes
Tuesday January 22, 2008

Next meeting: March 6, 2008
Physician's Dining Room A
The Children's Medical Center of Dayton

Present: Cameron Chumlea, Greg Eberhart, Shalini Forbis, Alyssa Gans, Maria Nanagas Jack Pascoe, Thomas Sorauf, Bill Spears, Sandy Specht

Absent: James Ebert, Elvira Jaballas, Andrew Kreppel, David Little, Gary Onady, Stephanie Riolo, Mary Ann Rosencrans, Adrienne Stolfi, William Tindall

Minutes Recorded by: Sandy Specht

1. ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Judi Engle is retiring from Wright State University January 30, 2008.
- SOAR-Net has been invited to join Primary Care Multiethnic Network (PRIME-Net) that focuses on studies of underserved populations for collaborations.
- 4 abstracts submitted to Pediatric Academic Societies' meeting to be held May 2-6, 2008 in Honolulu, Hawaii.
- Heather Biggers, CultureFlight Ltd to conduct workshop on Thursday March 6, 2008 6-7pm prior to SOAR-Net meeting.
- Heather Biggers, CultureFlight Ltd. To return to The Children's Medical Center of Dayton on March 21, 2008 to present Cultural Competence 101: A Model for Individuals at the Frontiers in Medicine Seminar series noon-1pm.
- Susan Perkins to return to conduct a follow-up faculty development workshop on MultiLevel Modeling on Friday April 25, 2008 1:30-4pm.

2. MINUTES – The December 12, 2007 meeting minutes were approved with minor changes.

3. COMMUNITY COORDINATOR REPORT– Greg Eberhart, M.D.

- Greg attended the Community Advisory Board Meeting and provided updates regarding their activities. Bill Spears discussed the Center for Healthy Communities upcoming Community Wellness Assessment.
- Greg met with PRI-Med Huber Heights on January 19, 2008 to discuss SOAR-Net research projects.
- No WOPS meetings planned or scheduled, Greg to talk to Sheri regarding upcoming Grand Rounds speakers to discuss coordinating a WOPS meeting with Grand Rounds.
- Greg to invite Alonzo Patterson and Jack to invite Raj Gupta to participate in Social Capital study.

4. PROJECTS REPORT

- PRINS – Manuscript submitted to Southern Medical Journal for publication, Jack to call for feedback.

- ADHD-
 - No updates available from Sandy Mendel regarding manuscript
 - Jeff Epstein, University of Cincinnati is waiting to hear if his ADHD Collaborative project is funded. If funded, he hopes to recruit SOAR-Net members to participate on this project.
- Maternal Mental Health in the Ohio Pediatric Research Consortium (OPRC)
 - Data collection to begin at WPAFB in the Pediatric Clinic February 2008 following final approval of the informed consent form by the WPAFB IRB.
 - Wright State University IRB Annual renewal submitted December 2007.
 - Rhea Rowser, MD a family practice physician at Miami Valley Hospital contacted Greg regarding participating in the maternal depression study. Sandy to contact Dr. Rowser and provide more information about the study as well as study materials.
- Social Capital Study
 - Social Capital chart reviews complete at OPI-Kettering, Sandy to begin chart reviews at OPI- Huber Heights.
 - Minor questionnaire wording changes submitted to The Children's Medical Center IRB
 - Data collection in progress in The Children's Health Clinic (~70 completed).
- Fever study
 - No updates
- MRSA study
 - MRSA study data collection ended November 15, 2007.
 - Greg submitted an abstract for Pediatric Academic Societies' (PAS) 2008 National Meeting comparing three regions, Northeast, Southwest and Central/Columbus. Regional differences included frequency of clinicians consulting infectious disease specialists at their respective hospitals (lower frequency in Central Ohio/Columbus region).
- Future Projects
 - Abi Omoloja, MD will be submitting his study entitled Blood Pressure in children and adolescents (0- 17 years): Assessing dissemination of evaluation guidelines among primary care clinicians to the Wright State University IRB. Discussed pros and cons of web-based versus mailed hardcopy version of questionnaire.

4. NEXT MEETING DATE:

SOAR-Net Meeting on Thursday March 6, 2008 following Heather Biggers' (CultureFlight Ltd) workshop on Cultural Competence from 6-7pm in Physician's Dining Room A at The Children's Medical Center of Dayton.